Republican Conventions.

State nominating convention at Jefferson City, June 24th.
State Judicial convention at Joplin, July 15th.

Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?—Psalms 56:12-13.

Fat Cattle Record Broken.

Sixteen head of Shorthorn and Angus grade steers were sold June 18th, at the Kansas City stock yards by the commission firm of White & Curtis for $7.80 per cwt., the price being the largest that has ever prevailed in the history of the market. The steers are coming threes, and averaged 1,362 pounds and brought an average of $106 per head. W. R. Van Anglen, a feeder of Hodge, Lafayette county, Missouri, was the owner of the cattle. In January of this year he raised the market record to $6.90 with steers he sold from the same lot which he marketed Wednesday. The 18 head which boomed prices to $7.80 were fed on rations of shelled corn and timothy hay, with an occasional charge of shock corn and oats straw. Two years ago Mr. Van Anglen bought the corn for 27 cents a bushel, and he says he has not seen the bottom of his corn crib since 1874.

Base Ball.

Oregon will open the base ball season, July 4th, at their new park in the western part of the city, known as the old fair grounds. The Oregon team will be composed of Oregon boys with one exception, that being the pitcher, Mr. Gales, of St. Joseph, who comes highly recommended. The Oregon team ask their friends for a liberal patronage this season, as this is the only way a team can succeed. We open the season with the Bergers of St. Joseph, one of the strongest amateur teams in the city, being second in the pennant race at that place. The management will strictly enforce the rule against betting or gambling at the ball park and it will not be tolerated for a minute, so those so inclined can take warning, as we believe the cleaner you make the game the more people will attend.

Just a Habit.

The lawyer asked the witness if the incident previously alluded to wasn't a miracle, and the witness said he didn't know what a miracle was.
"Oh, come," said the attorney. "Supposing you were looking out of a window in the 20th story of a building and should fall out and should not be injured. What would you call that?"
"An accident," was the stolid reply.
"Yes, yes; but what else would you call it? Well, suppose you were doing the same thing the next day; suppose you looked out of the 20th story window and fell out, and again should find yourself not injured. Now, what would you call that?"

"A coincidence," said the witness.
"Oh, come now," the lawyer began again, relates the Gentlewoman. "I want you to understand what a miracle is, and I'm sure you do. Now, just suppose that on the third day you were looking out of the 20th story window and fell out, and struck your head on the pavement 20 stories below, and were not in the least injured. Come now, what would you call it?"
"Three times?" said the witness, rousing a little from his apathy. "Well I'd call that a habit."

And the lawyer gave it up.

RUDE.

—Say! Shambaugh's flour is coming to the front and it is all O. K. You will find it at Shambaugh & Co.

—Mrs. Mary Margaret Intermill, who resided with husband on what is known as the Anderson farm, between Oregon and New Point, died at Asylum No. 2 in St. Joseph, Wednesday, June 25, 1902, aged 56 years. We understand she had been in St. Joseph, a few weeks for treatment, and while not insane, her mind was weak. The immediate cause of death was heart disease. The funeral will take place, we are informed, from the Nickell's Grove church today, Friday.

—It may not be known publicly, but nevertheless it is a fact, that there is a heavy penalty for desecrating graves. Vandals, or people without hearts and souls, have been in the habit of going to cemetery and removing flowers that had been placed on the graves of loved ones, and in several instances, have dug up and taken away shrubbery that had been planted on the graves. On one grave in particular, the shrubbery has been dug up and carried away three or four different times. These graves are being closely watched, and if the parties are caught doing this work, they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.
